Jessica Alba had her baby shower yesterday afternoon in LA.

Details are as follows:

Where: The Ever After Teahouse in Studio City for a baby shower.

Who: 35 of the mom-to-Be's closest friend and family including Jessica's sister, Rashida Jones, Jaime King and Kim Kardashian.

Menu: white wine, lemonade, iced tea and coffee and an assortment of ice cream drinks; skewers of tiger shrimp and soft-pulled chicken; and for dessert, white and dark chocolate-dipped strawberries, mini donut varieties, mini custard tarts and mini eclairs.

Jessica reportedly received many presents, including high-end strollers, cradles and baskets full of Dr. Seuss books, rattles and clothes. There was a giant white stuffed bunny and lots of flower bouquets.

The party was catered by tastybaby, an organic baby food company. This is the same company that also catered Elisabeth Rohm's shower last week.

All guests received a recyclable tote bag filled with baby food, recipes and toys.
